nineteen hundred - sixty nine

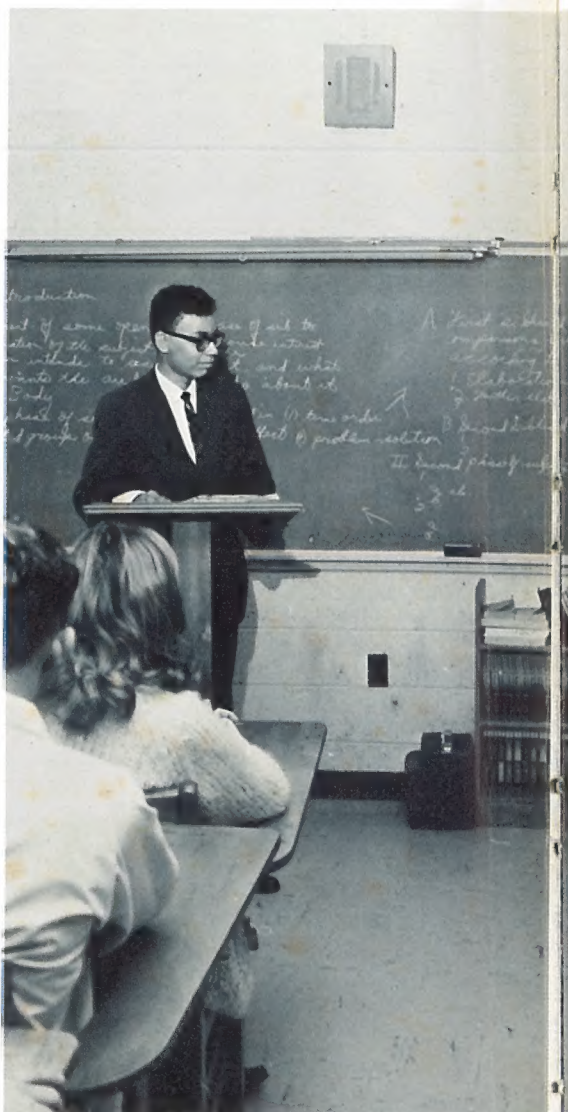

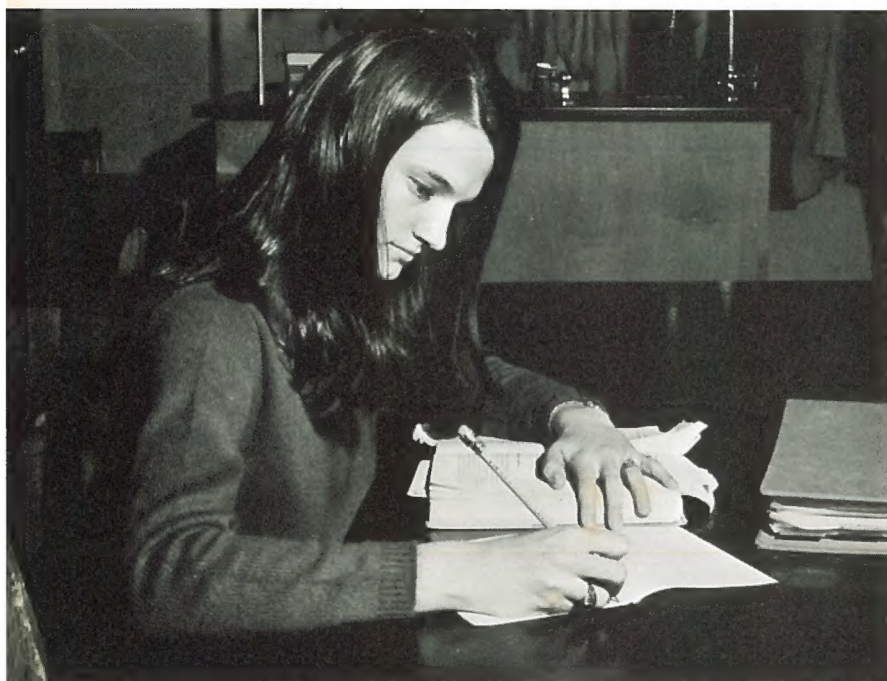

Our country is the world—our countrymen are all mankind.
William Lloyd Garrison

Old Fort students have served and are now serving with our armed forces in many parts of the world. To those students who have faced decision and have accepted rationally tours of duty, and to those from our classes soon to serve, we dedicate the 1969 ARROWHEAD.

An Old Fort Student Learns What He

Lives

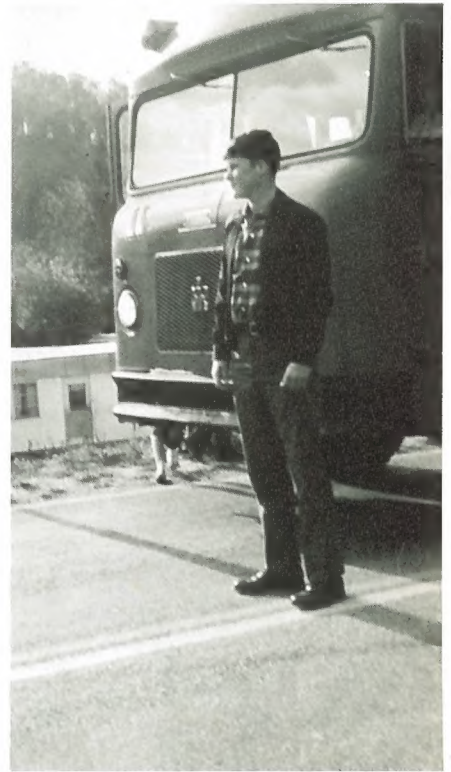

A school day at Old Fort Hi is many things: experiences of learning and growing, some performed alone; others shared. But all the work and play become a part of our lives and, to some extent, shape our destinies. From these activities we develop into self-disciplined, morally responsible individuals who both lead and follow, build and shape, and protest and react with intelligence and moderation to the inevitability of change.

ACTIVITIES

Students Give Efficient Help

The girls who have willingly devoted their study hall to help in the office and to run errands for Mr. Greer and Mrs. Thomason are Glenna Allison, Glenda Vess, Glenda Davis, Marjorie Banner, Janet Connor, Nancy Greer, Brenda Hall, Terry Bradley, Sheila Carswell, and Nancy Ramsey.

The responsibility of carrying mail to and from school is assumed by Jimmy Brown and Bill Nichols.

Assuming the task of selling lunch tickets to the hungry students are Cathy Moore, Sheila Carswell, and Brenda Hall.

Assisting the students and helping to keep the library in order are Carolyn Bryant, Pat Bradley, Lynn White, Virginia Harris, Susan Noblitt, Revonda Robinson, Marshall Walker, Martha Morris, Garry Early.

Being a bus driver is a job heavy with responsibility; thus, a bus driver must be a very capable driver. This year's bus drivers are Tony Carswell, Randy Banner, Hugh Gilliam, Greg McGinnis, Garry Early, Ted Smith. Second row: Dennis Bivins, Marshall Walker, Allen Vess, Darrell Shirlen.

Band

Evon Kimbrell concludes her fourth year as Head Majorette.

With only three days rehearsal a week, these musicians perform ably. First rank: D. Allison, T. Norton, M. Tilson, G. Carver, D. Johnson, M. Kimbrell. Second rank: S. Guthrie, P. Knupp, V. Hornaday, A. Creasman, J. Glover, D. Kirby. Third rank: P. Smith, S. Grant, H. Josey, D. Noblitt, P. Harmon, D.

With bright smiles, pretty faces, and excellent precision, the majorettes have proven to be a rare asset to the band this year. These competent girls are Dana Noblitt, Lisa Silver, Doris Simmons, Dana Allison and Gay White.

Smith. Fourth rank: P. Sutton, B. Ramsey, M. Rhinehardt, G. Edney, J. Allison, W. Lunsford. Fifth rank: V. Crawford, K. Early, R. Harmon, D. Kirby, J. Lowdermilk, A. Tilson.

Having the awesome responsibility of conducting the band has been a challenge to Kay Harris, Drum Majorette.

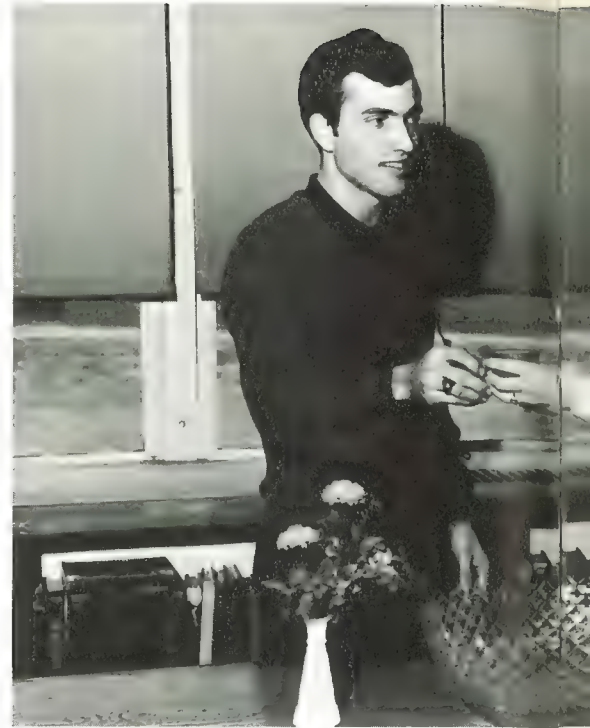

Band Director Captain Ralph K. Ostrom conducts the band with military precision.

Because of their timeless thoughtfulness, encouragement and matchless assistance, Bill Nichols and Nancy Ramsey were chosen by the faculty as Best Citizens.

Helpful, amiable, attractive, pleasant and courteous are adjectives which well describe Jimmy

Seniors

Proficiency in sports requires practice, confidence, perseverance, training, sportsmanship, and an intensive desire to win. Possessing these abilities to lead their teams to success, Ronnie Davis and Jane McCauley were chosen by their classmates as Most Athletic.

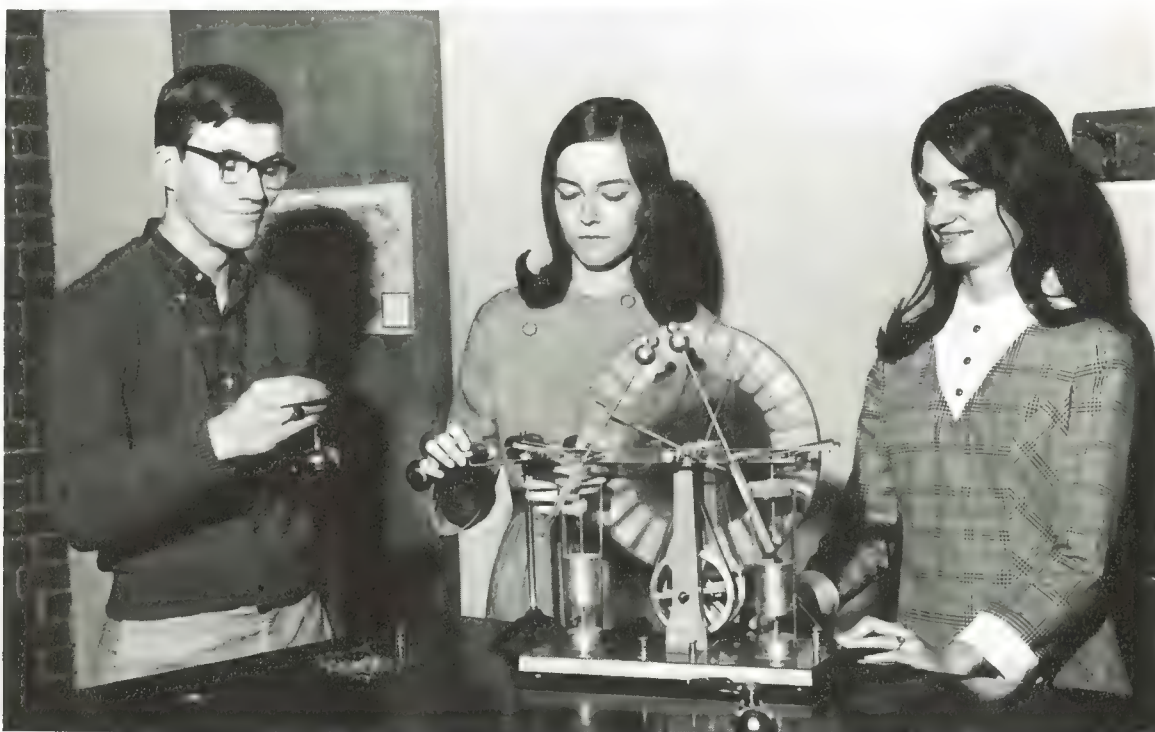

Brown and Ann Burgin—selected by the members of the Senior class as Best-All-Around.

Abilities must be cultivated if they are to become talents. For their toil in making their skills superior, Robert Twitty and Evon Kimbrell were chosen by their classmates as Most Talented.

Merit Honors

Their awareness, understanding, and perception have not only won Steve Effler, Justine Williams, and Nancy Ramsey the respect and admiration of both teachers and fellow-students, but also the highest scholastic average as of November, 1968, and the honor of being Most Intellectual.

Students Achieve Distinction

Valedictorian of the Class of '68 was Miss Johnsie Elliott. Miss Ethel Sword was salutatorian.

Recipient of the 1969 D A R Citizenship award is Miss Nancy Ramsey, who also was a candidate for the Mary Katherine Reynolds Scholarship offered by the University of N. C. at Greensboro.

Jimmy Brown, selected from our county to attend the American Legion Boys' State, was one of two delegates chosen to represent N. C. at the 1968 Boys' Nation in Washington, D. C. Jimmy is shown here enjoying a chat with Rep. Roy Taylor.

Eight Juniors were chosen on the basis of their academic average to serve as marshals in the 1968 graduation exercises. They were Katie Allison, Chief Marshal Nancy Ramsey, Glenna Allison, Carolyn Bryant. Second row: Jimmy Brown, Bill Nichols, Steve Effler, and Chief Marshal Justine Williams.

ATHLETICS

Cheerleaders Boost Morale

Exhibiting her charm and ability Ann Burgin represents school spirit to eight energetic girls. Ann's devotion to her school and its teams has been exemplified by long hours of practice, many miles of travel, and long hours of cheering during her four years as cheerleader. Any fatigue or pique was always well-hidden by her ever-pleasant smile.

Freshman girls Marian Bradley and Polly Lewis start off their first year of cheering with enthusiasm.

Redskins Improve Over Previous

Coaches King and McFee inspire personal courage, cooperative attitudes, and undefeated spirits.

Rounding out four years of rugged playing, Jimmy Brown, Philip Steppe, and Max Hendley, crowned their previous success by serving as tri-captains this year.

Season

Ann Burgin Reigns Over Homecoming

An air of excitement still lingers as the dance marks the end of Homecoming festivities.

A Redskin warrior arouses school spirit during the Homecoming Parade.

Max Hendley bestows a well deserved kiss upon the 1968 Homecoming Queen, Ann Burgin.

Maidens Show Hustle And A Desire To Win

The mid-point of the '68-69 Basketball Season found the Maidens undefeated in Conference play.

Because of their experience and playing ability, Linda Hemphill and Jane McCauley were elected co-captains by their teammates.

Redskins Rebuild This Season

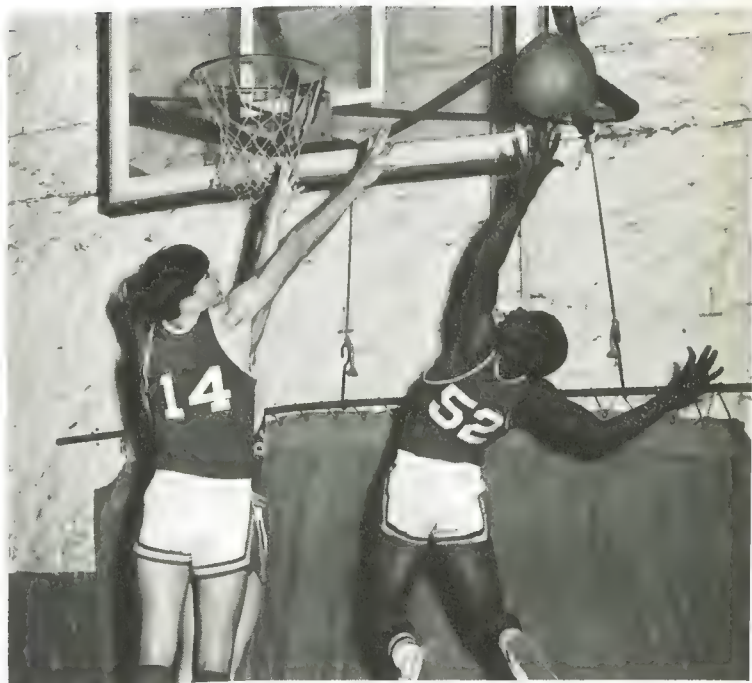

Kneeling: Mike Silver, Benny Matthews, Ronald Lackey, Billy Glovier, Allen Corpening. Standing: Waymon Lytle, Ronnie Davis, Wayne Burnette, Otis Carson, Freddy Silver, Louis Shirlen, Dale Robinson, and Tommy Norton, manager.

Under the qualified leadership of Coach Ken Griffin, Captain Ronnie Davis with co-captains Louis Shirlen and Waymon Lytle work together to strengthen the winning ability of their team.

Through hard work, practice, hustle, and determination, the team was able to make that last-minute effort when it counted the most.

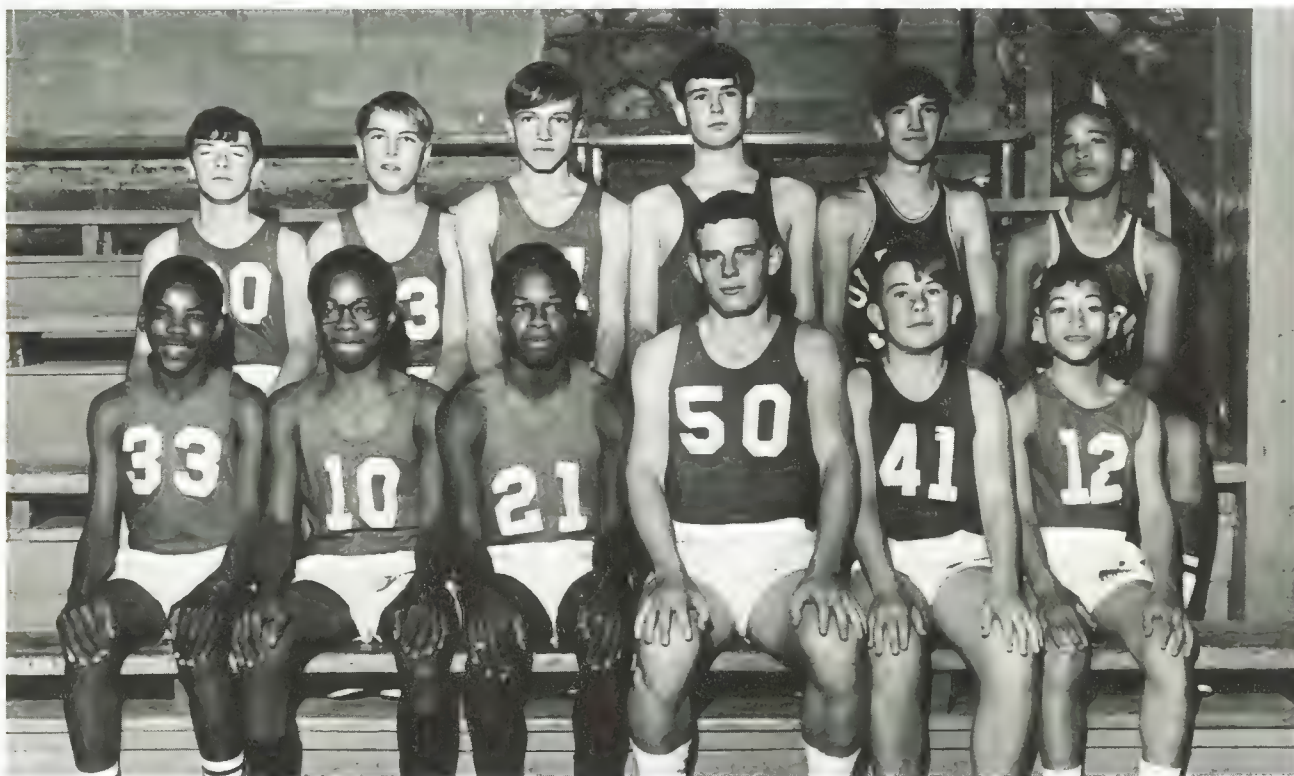

J.V.'s Develop Potential Skills

Looking forward to their goal of winning more victories for Old Fort High are the following girls: Lynn Burnette, Sheila Logan, Roxy Bryson, Debbie Brown, Debbie Parker and Manager Stephanie Swepson. Second row: Manager Tony Frick, Janice Wilson, Cathy Griffin, Sheila Hartwell, Lois Willis, Martha Knup, and Lisa Silver.

To prepare the J.V.'s for becoming future Red-skin stars the J.V. coaches, Miss Joan Gebhardt and Mr. Fred King, stress basketball fundamentals.

Team Work -- Team Spirit

Girls Softball Team Undefeated In First Season

Coach Mary Allison and Susan Frye, along with other members of the team, snowed under each of the opposing teams as Old Fort coasted to an undefeated season.

Redskins Produce Pro Prospect

John Lipe, rifle-armed catcher, was one of the most publicized baseball players in Western North Carolina. With a .650 batting average, he led the conference in RBI's and home runs.

Coach Ken Griffin led the Redskins to a 10-5 record which gave them third place in the Skyline Conference.

Track Team Establishes Seasonal Record

Philip Steppe hands off to Tommy Norton as the Old Fort track team upsets N.C.S.D. for mile relay victory at conference meet.

Bill Matthews, state highjump champion.

Annual Staff Produces

To make each issue of the yearbook unique and interesting is a challenge to the ARROWHEAD staff. This year, in an attempt to meet that challenge, the staff has employed several new techniques including the use of duo-tones. The total number of subscriptions has exceeded previous records. Staff members include Jimmy

Diversified Activities Develop Minds And Bodies

In an unusual first grade this year, students not only use books, pencils, and paper, but also hammers, saws and other such equipment. Johnny Evans demonstrates the use of a hammer and nails to build a box.

Traffic safety is the aim of the Safety Patrol. These boys watch out for on-coming cars and other hazards. First row: Don Adams, John Daniels, Russell Murphy, Wayne Stafford, Anthony Daniels. Second row: Dennis McPeters, Ronald Hartwell, Jeff Allison, Mike Morris, Mike McPeters, and sponsor Mr. Malcolm McFee.

All elementary students look forward to "play period" every day. Not only do students get to play together, but at the same time, they develop their bodies both physically and mentally.

Mrs. Bula Nichols teaches reading to first grade children who need extra practice.

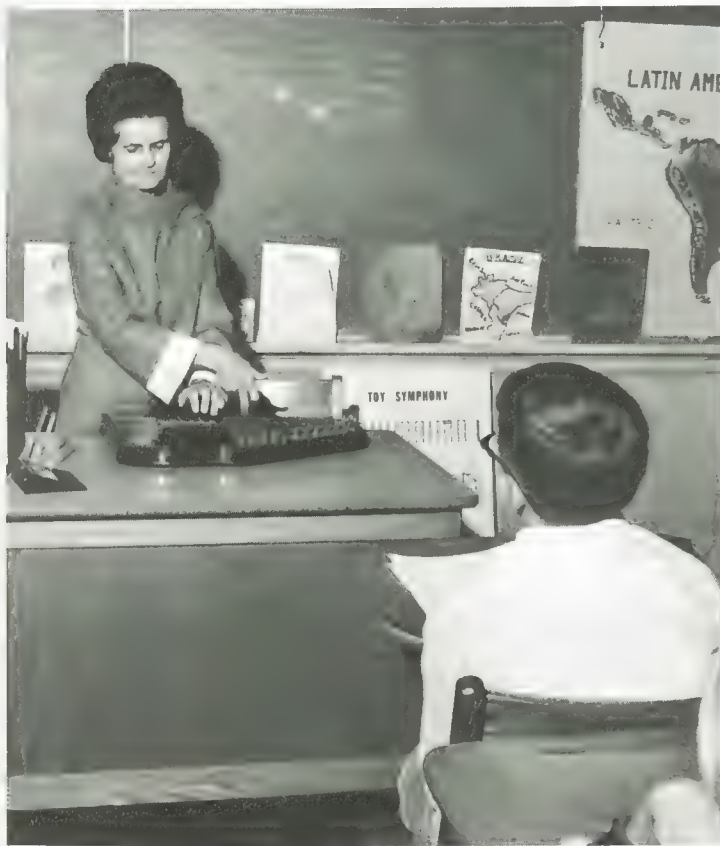

Library aides this year are James Robertson, Tony Frick, Barry Early, Sandra Williams, Kathy Connor, Phyllis Connor and Stephanie Swepson.

Helping teachers with their many duties are Mrs. Dottie Grindstaff, Mrs. Ailene Martin, Mrs. Mildred McCauley. Second row: Mrs. Margie Hass, Mrs. Margaret Adams, Mrs. Elsie Robinson, Mrs. Joyce Wilson, Mrs. Janette Nanney.

Mrs. Gretchen Corbitt encourages appreciation of music in elementary classrooms.

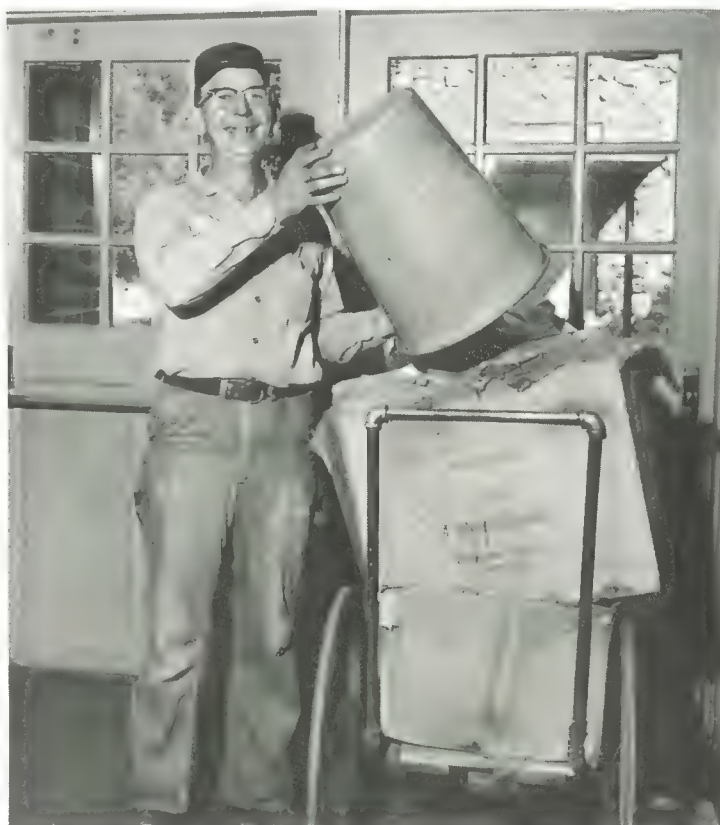

Teaching elementary students how to use the library facilities is the task of Mrs. Brooks Allison.

Cooks And Custodians Serve The School

Preparing a delicious and balanced meal daily is a tremendous task for lunchroom workers. But Mr. Gerald Robertson, Mrs. Helen Logan, Mrs. Margaret Brown, Mrs. Minnie Walker, Mrs. Martha Coltrane, Mrs. Leah Grooms, Mrs. Corine Setzer, Mrs. Lillie Belle Allison, and Mrs. Helen Harmon have proven that it can be done.

The stupendous duty of keeping the buildings neat and clean go to Mrs. Frances Allison and Mrs. Estelle Roland who manage to do their work very expertly and efficiently.

Mr. James White has the arduous task of keeping the buildings in excellent condition and the equipment in perfect working order. Mr. White also looks after and cares for the surrounding school grounds.
